

WILLIAM WALTON.

APRIL 6, 1860.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. STOKES, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the case of William Walton, beg leave to report:

The petitioner asks for arrears of pension back to 1828. He is now receiving a pension. Under the rule adopted by this committee, we concur in rejecting the claim, trusting a general bill we are maturing will meet the just demands of these old soldiers. Your committee ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.

WILLIAM WALTON.

March 8, 1870.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Storrs, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the case of William Walton, beg leave to report:

The petitioner asks for arrears of pension back to 1858. He is now receiving a pension. Under the rule adopted by this committee, we cannot in rejecting the claim, treating a general bill we are entering will meet the just demands of these old soldiers. Your committee ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.